Lori Oczkus is a literacy coach, author, and popular speaker across the United States. She is the 2009 recipient of the California Reading Hall of Fame award. Tens of thousands of teachers have attended her motivating, fast paced workshops and read her practical, research-based professional books. Lori has extensive experience as a bilingual elementary teacher, intervention specialist working with struggling readers, and staff developer and literacy coach. Come learn the powerful effect scaffolded writing instruction can have on your students. Lori's practical lessons show you how to easily transform dull, lifeless writing into colorful organized pieces full of voice. You'll walk away with the steps and "cool tools" to guide students as they write everything from personal narratives to poetry and reports. The presentation is based on Lori's popular Heinemann book, Guided Writing: Practical Lessons, Powerful Results.
